

THE MENOKIN FOUNDATION

STAFF

Sarah Dillard Pope

Sarah Dillard Pope Executive Director

Sarah Dillard Pope brings experience in the preservation field, nonprofit management and a connection to local history to her position. She is a native of Essex County, Virginia, and holds an undergraduate degree in art history from William and Mary, a masters in historic preservation from the University of Georgia, and a certificate in nonprofit management from George Mason. Before coming to Menokin, Ms. Pope worked at: the National Trust for Historic Preservation as a program associate, focusing on their Preservation Leadership Training program (1994-1996); the National Park Service's National Register of Historic Places program as a historian (1996-2003); and then for the Virginia Main Street program, providing economic development assistance to 20 communities across the Commonwealth (2003-2005).

Beth A. Reavis

Beth A. Reavis Assistant Director

Beth A. Reavis compliments Executive Director Sarah Pope through her administrative and fundraising experience. She attended Texas A & M University and has bookkeeping and office management experience through running her own small business. She has proven fundraising events skills, and most recently managed several successful fundraising events for a local private school.